

Name: _____ Date: _____

Class: _____

Active Listening Guide

Multilingual learners with lower listening and speaking skills can benefit from having listening guides that support their comprehension of oral language. This is a sample activity adapted from a real lesson and it is meant to be a model for a listening guide.<sup>1</sup>

Title of Talk: “The Era of Corporate Social Responsibility is Ending”

Presenter of Talk: Hutchisson

Type of Talk: TEDTalk

Listening tips for you:

- € Focus on what you DO understand, not what you don't.
- € Use the questions below to help you listen for specific information.
- € List any other points or ideas that stands out to (=interests) you.

Write notes here:

Key concepts or unfamiliar words:

After listening to the talk, use the space below to write your answers to the following questions . Feel free to discuss your answers with your peers and even use your notes from the talk.

- What was Hutchisson's main point in this talk?
- Why does the speaker think that corporate social responsibility is limiting?
- What does the speaker propose as a different way of thinking about CSR?

---

<sup>1</sup> This activity was adapted from Namubiru's 'Special Topics in EAP 505' (Summer 2018)